

I feel that LPFM having priority over existing radio frequencies is a mistake. Many non-main stream radio stations would not survive this change. Airl is a radio station that I listen to and provides good, clean, and positive music. I keeps my spirits uplifted and reminds me of the good in humanity when there sometimes seems to be chaos all around. If LPFM replaced Airl, the community would lose a great part of it's moral character.